

JACKIE KERSHNER

INTERN

Jackie is a sophomore at Scarsdale High. She is a daughter of a Soviet/Ukrainian Jewish refugee and is passionate about helping others settle and integrate in the US. In addition to working with refugees in the US, Jackie has been peer tutoring a student in Ukraine for the past two years, herself learning about Ukrainian customs and, unfortunately, the current climate.

In her free time, Jackie enjoys playing soccer, traveling, photography and is learning Russian.
