

KATE DOUGLASS

INTERN

Kate is a sophomore at Mamaroneck High School. She is passionate about helping others and creating positive change in her community. She is vice president of the Students for Refugee's club at her school, where they work with local refugee resettlement organizations, including WJCI, to plan programming and raise money for nearby refugee families.

In her free time, Kate enjoys her work on her school yearbook, volunteering for the Backyard Sports Cares organization, traveling, and baking.
