

BRIAN FINK

T R E A S U R E R

Brian has a deep interest in helping new immigrants arriving in the United States where he has been active for a number of years in local refugee resettlement organizations. He enjoys working directly with immigrant families helping them with accommodation, navigate some of the cultural differences and find employment.

Brian is a Managing Director within Accenture's CFO-EV Risk and Compliance practice in New York. Brian has nearly 30 years of experience leading technology modernisation programs across middle and back office functions at U.S. and international banking institutions.

He grew up in Manchester, UK and graduated from Leeds University in Northern England. He started his career in the City of London implementing treasury and financial reporting systems at Sema Group and then at Credit Suisse Financial Products. He moved to New York in the late 90's and worked at Credit Suisse and UBS leading regulatory remediation initiatives and as a consultant where he led technology initiatives at the DTCC and Societe Generale. In 2006, he joined Accenture's Capital Markets Solutions Group becoming a Managing Director in the CFO-EV practice specialising in Digital Finance, Risk and Compliance. He is responsible for managing client sales and delivering high value consulting across a number of key global client accounts. Brian is a member of Westchester Jewish Synagogue, he has a wife and two teenage children and lives in Westchester.