

OLIVIA FINK

I N T E R N

Olivia is a Sophomore at American University pursuing a degree in Business Administration and Marketing. She is passionate about human rights and immigration. She was the founder of Students For Refugees at Mamaroneck High School, where she led the group in fundraising and volunteering for local organizations.

Olivia currently serves as the head of PR for AEPi at American University, a Jewish sorority that fundraises for Sharsheret and the Elizabeth Glazer Pediatrics AIDS Foundation, and as the head of marketing for spoon AU.