

HEIDI RIEGER

BOARD MEMBER

Heidi Rieger is a LCSW with a small private practice in Northern Westchester. She has devoted the last 25 years to be actively engaged in her community, wherever she happens to find herself. When Kabul fell last summer, she helped create ReSET Westchester, which has resettled 3 Afghan families and most recently a family from Ukraine. In addition, she sits on the Boards of Marlene Meyerson JCC Manhattan, Afya Foundation, Jacob Burns Film Center, Facing History and Ourselves NY Advisory Board and Romemu. She is a member of the Basser Center Advisory Board. She's been a member of Neshamot, a woman's giving circle, for the last 16 years.

In addition to working, running and attending meetings to dream up interesting programs, she is the proud mother of 3 grown daughters and 2 Tibetan terriers. She and her husband Richard reside in Bedford and the Upper West Side.
